

Article - Transportation

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)

§21-603.

(a) A person may not start a vehicle that is stopped, standing, or parked until the movement can be made with reasonable safety.

(b) A person may not start a vehicle that is stopped, standing, or parked until, if any other vehicle might be affected by the movement, he gives an adequate signal to approaching traffic.

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)